slowly let go of the surface you are sitting on slide with me
slide into me *breaths*
you fill the room with your breath you slide and breathe

with each breath
It becomes more difficult to define inside and outside am i the room you are filling ?

it smells so good
warmth and salt
    rose petals and salt

more salt

my mouth is running full

I am holding your entire body naked in my mouth We both wait till the warm thick saliva wraps around your tiny body
    You can't move anymore
    You can't escape
    your body elevates from my tongue

And then i'll just let you effortlessly slide down my throat You will hear the blood pump through my artheria and your heart beat synchronise with mine although it is too slow for your tiny heart you are drowning

3.

There are multiple ways to get you inside of me the knife slides on my side I make a cut

now you can stick your finger inside It's warm and wet

You want more

You slide under my skin
You rip the surface slightly But you're inside
it is safe here

wait Or is it me inside of you open your mouth

let me slide in and out

4.

I touch you and you melt like butter dissolve through my fingers I can roll in you and..
pour you all over my body you clog up my pores
leak in the orifices

5.

we multipl(a)y
we lay eggs
they burst into bubbles
leave oily traces they expand out of their shells then they can re-enter me/us again

... thousands of tiny fishes

thank you i loved it
